

Cathryn J. Quinn

Paralegal

cquinn@larkinhoffman.com

952.896.1513

Cathy is the trademark paralegal and docketing administrator in the intellectual property practice group.

Her duties include the preparation, filing, and maintenance of U.S. trademark applications and registrations – as well as communicating with foreign counsel regarding international trademark applications and registrations. Cathy also manages trademark deadlines, which arise both before and after registration. She is also responsible for performing preliminary availability searches of trademarks and preparing portfolio reports for attorneys and clients.

Education

- University of Evansville (B.S.)
 - Legal Administration

Professional Affiliations

- Minnesota Paralegal Association

Services

- Intellectual Property and Technology