952.896.1559

Craig W. Hardie brings a pragmatic and reassuring approach to his land use and real estate clients. Working with businesses, developers and other property owners, Craig helps clients “get to yes” with their projects.

Craig’s practical strategies and strong communication were honed during past experience as an associate attorney at a Twin Cities firm that served local government entities, including Minnesota school districts, cities and counties. This background gives Craig valuable insight while counseling clients seeking local governmental approvals.

Craig brings additional experience from serving as a judicial law clerk to the Honorable Timothy J. McManus of Minnesota’s First Judicial District.
