

Danielle S. Pathos

Attorney

dpathos@larkinhoffman.com

952.896.1520

Danielle S. Pathos is a franchise and general corporate attorney who advises on a variety of business and legal issues. Danielle has experience structuring private placements, drafting business agreements, advising on regulatory compliance and assisting with IP licensing.

With previous experience at the Minnesota Senate, a private corporation, and the Minnesota State Bar Association, Danielle has a strong background in corporate compliance, risk management and legislative research.

Services

- Franchise and Distribution
- Corporate & Transactions
- Startups and Emerging Businesses

Representative Experience

- Advised on corporate governance, business structuring, and growth strategies, preparing key legal documents such as stock purchase agreements, articles of incorporation and capitalization tables to meet regulatory standards.
- Managed private placements and venture capital funding, ensuring regulatory alignment and completing Regulation D filings under SEC standards to protect investors and drive capital growth.
- Structured sourcing, manufacturing, and distribution agreements to maintain quality and compliance. Negotiated and draft joint venture and strategic alliance agreements to optimize operational efficiency and support partnerships.
- Provided legal guidance for real estate acquisitions, sales, and development projects, covering financing, leasing and compliance to align with strategic investment goals.
- Advised on IP protection and licensing strategies across technology, software and healthcare to safeguard proprietary assets and ensure regulatory compliance.

Education

- Mitchell Hamline School of Law (J.D., cum laude, 2024)
- University of Minnesota (B.A., 2021)
 - Economics

Bar/Court Admissions

- Minnesota, 2024

