

Julia Melk

Paralegal

jmelk@larkinhoffman.com

952.896.1523

Julia is an integral member of Larkin Hoffman's family law group. She has been with Larkin Hoffman since 1997, working exclusively in the area of family law. Julia serves as a knowledgeable liaison for attorneys, clients, experts, and court personnel. She has significant experience handling family law matters, such as contentious divorces, contested paternity and custody actions, parenting time proceedings, child support and spousal maintenance calculations, complex marital estates, and mediation. She also has extensive experience in handling cases involving large assets and complex businesses. Julia provides compassionate, efficient, cost-effective assistance to Larkin Hoffman clients.

Services

- Family Law

Education

- University of Wisconsin (B.A., 1990)
- North Hennepin Community College (A.A.S., 1994)

Professional Affiliations

- Minnesota Paralegal Association
- Family Law Section, Hennepin County Bar Association