SCG Legal

Paul Plunkett is the former Chair of SCG Legal, a network of 123 independent law firms distinguished for their exemplary practices, proven leadership, dedication to client service, commitment to diversity and inclusion and adherence to transparent and fair practices. As chair, Paul spearheaded strategic planning, program development and the recruitment and retention of premier international law firms. During his tenure, he expanded and enhanced SCG Legal's network of international firms, fortifying SCG Legal's roster of experienced, politically-connected attorneys and professionals. This included experienced professionals who were government leaders including senators, congressional representatives, governors, mayors, ministers and administrative agency leaders. SCG Legal's expansive reach serves clients in every U.S. state capital, the District of Columbia and more than 63 countries globally.
